

January, 27th 2024

Norwood Public Schools Superintendent Search: Finalist Next Steps

On Wednesday, 1/24, the School Committee approved the recommendation of the Search Committee to advance three finalists for Norwood's next Superintendent of Schools. Finalist names were posted to the NPS website on 1/25.

Below is the timeline of next steps:

Thursday, February 1st:

- NPS will host each candidate as they visit three of our schools in the morning where they will have the opportunity to engage with students and staff.
- That afternoon, there will be three meet-the-candidates sessions at the Highschool open for any students, staff or community members to attend.
 - In total, these will last from 4:00-5:30 pm. Each candidate will spend about 25 minutes before moving to the next group. (4:00-4:25, 4:30-4:55, and 5:00-5:25)

Locations of groups:

Students will be in Room 106

Staff will be in the GSU Lecture Hall

Community Members will be in the Library

Saturday, February 3rd:

Finalist interviews at the Savage Center

10:30-11:30 Priya Tahiliani

11:40-12:40 Timothy Luff

12:50-1:50 John Buckey

Those that participate in the visits, "meet-the-candidates", or watch the interviews on NCM will be encouraged to participate in a feedback survey. The survey info will be compiled and provided to SC before deliberation on Feb 7th.

Monday, February 5th, 4:00pm

Feedback survey closes

Wednesday, February 7th, 7:00pm

School Committee business meeting including finalist deliberation and vote